

SIGN UP NOW FOR JUNE HIKES IN TBV!

We have scheduled five hikes to celebrate the 10th Anniversary of the creation of the Trout Brook Valley preserve (TBV). These diverse hikes are open to everyone and offer a great way to explore the over 1,600 acres of open space in our community.

June 6th: National Trails Day

This hike, celebrating National Trails Day, is a long and moderately difficult one that explores both TBV and Jump Hill along multiple trails. Meet at 8:30am for the 9am to 1pm hike. RSVP to Lisa Brodli at lbrodli@aol.com or 203-227-1522. (35 spots maximum)

June 13th: Equestrian Ride

Come explore TBV on horse-back! Trails will be marked and will include access to the Orchard for an outstanding view of the Long Island Sound. Meet at 8am and wander the trails at your own pace. RSVP to Aili diBonaventura at aillidib@hotmail.com or 203-247-7369

June 14th: Orienteering

Long-time orienteers, Rick & Susan DeWitt will lead an orienteering adventure in TBV. Orienteering maps with marked locations will be distributed-don't forget your compass! Meet at 8:45am for the 9am to 12pm adventure. RSVP to Tara Kasaks at tkasaks@aspetucklandtrust.org. (30 spots maximum)

June 20th: TBV History Tour

Join Bruce LePage, former Executive Director of ALT, for a fascinating history review of TBV while enjoying a moderately difficult hike. Meet at 9:15am for the 9:30am to 12pm hike. RSVP to Bruce at belepage@sbcglobal.net or 339-1574 (35 spots maximum)

June 27th: Birding Hike

Expert Milan Bull from the Connecticut Audubon Society will be on hand to discuss the amazing bird diversity in TBV. Meet at 8am for a two-hour walk through TBV and bring your binoculars and cameras! RSVP to David Brant at dbrant@aspetucklandtrust.org or 331-1906 (35 spots maximum)

All hikes meet at the Bradley Road parking lot in Weston. Please call 331-1906 one hour before your hike for cancellations in case of inclement weather. Please wear appropriate clothing including hiking boots and/or sturdy sneakers and bring water. For more information, visit www.aspetucklandtrust.org or call David Brant at 331-1906.
